Cranwell Earns Wine Spectator Magazine Award for 12th Year

New Small Plates Menu introduced in historic Mansion Restaurants

Lenox, (September 3, 2013)...Cranwell Resort, Spa and Golf Club located in Lenox, the heart of the Berkshires in Western Massachusetts is the recipient of Wine Spectator's 2013 Award of Excellence. "We are honored to receive this award for the 12th consecutive year and to be listed among some of the world's top restaurants," said Chef Carl DeLuce, a Chaines des Rotisseurs Inductee.

Cranwell introduced a new Small Plates menu in 2013 so guests may experience a wider variety of "tastings" including Petit Filet Mignon, Grilled White Polenta and Frogs Legs Confit. There are several dining venues at its scenic hilltop property. The Wyndhurst Restaurant, located just off the Great Hall of the Gilded Age Mansion, is a wood-paneled dining room with expansive vistas overlooking the Berkshire Hills. The Music Room, also located in the Mansion, offers a the same dinner menu as well as full breakfast daily with a chef-attended omelet station and buffet on most weekends.

Sloane's Tavern, located at Cranwell's championship 18-hole golf course offers seasonal outdoor dining with casual lunches and dinners perfect for families. When the course turns into a cross-country ski center in winter, the Tavern is a perfect respite from the cold.
